Gents:

I have accepted the policy, on your own terms, and kindly return the 17th. If you wish to do business with me, I will be pleased, providing you have a big amount of Confederate money. It must be equally as good bills, and will buy no less than the 1st lot. If you have a large lot of 50's & 100's bills, I will buy them reasonably.

Respectfully yours
[illegible]

Dear Sirs Yours of the 4th inst at hand you must excuse me for not replying at once as I was very busy and in reference to the confederate cotton, I will take the lot for 2½ cents cash providing they are in good order.
I cannot pay any more for 500 and 100 bales, you must put them on board of cars, instruct the Express Co. to allow me to examine Respectfully R. [illegible]
